

• Workshop on Human values

KIIT College of Education organized a workshop on Human values on Thursday, April 21, 2016 at 10:00 am in its Seminar Hall for the students and faculty of the college. Dr. M. Sen Gupta, Director, KIIT College of Education was the resource person for the workshop. He comprehensively presented and discussed the concept of values, types of values and strategies to nurture the values in school students. He elucidated his talk by narrating daily life examples. He also explained the importance and implication of values in education.

The students then were divided into groups. During the Group Discussion students deliberated on the following:

1. Why value education should be given at school level?
2. List 10 activities each for primary and secondary level in school through which value education can be imparted effectively.

The Group leaders presented their Group Reports. The discussions on the reports were quite fruitful in clarifying the concept and pin pointing practical strategies.

• Workshop on Gender Sensitization

Dr. Neelima V. Kamrah organized a workshop on Gender Sensitization on 29th April, 2016 for the students of B. Ed. and M. Ed. Students in large number participated in it. Dr. Neelima followed a blended approach. She talked, presented through PPT, gave Work Sheets to students, Administered questionnaire and through Group Work. She asked students to write their own experiences regarding gender discrimination in the present day society on display board. Overall it was a powerful exposition on gender equality.
